

Contact: Jamie Finley
Director of Marketing
216-696-3634
finleyj@glsc.org

Baseball As America
Swings into Great Lakes Science Center
March 31 through September 3, 2007

PARTIAL LIST OF ARTIFACTS

- The Doubleday Ball -- the game's most "sacred" relic and the first artifact displayed in the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in Cooperstown, New York
- Trophy given to Lou Gehrig at his Yankee Stadium farewell
- Jack Norworth's original 1908 manuscript of the lyrics for "Take Me Out to the Ball Game"
- Single-season record-breaking home run bats used by Babe Ruth, Roger Maris, Sammy Sosa and Mark McGwire
- The world's most valuable baseball card: a Honus Wagner T206 of 1909
- Brooklyn Dodgers jersey worn by Jackie Robinson
- A ticket dated 7/4/39 to Lou Gehrig Day
- Mrs. Lou Gehrig's charm bracelet
- A pair of spikes worn by the immortal Ty Cobb
- Norman Rockwell's painting "GAME CALLED BECAUSE OF RAIN (TOUGH CALL)," 1949
- A 1952 Topps Mickey Mantle rookie baseball card
- A Barnum & Bailey Elephant Baseball Team poster
- Yogi Berra's glove with the ball he caught as the last pitch of Don Larsen's victory in the only perfect game in World Series history
- Cap worn by the immortal Satchel Paige
- Eyeglasses worn by legendary broadcaster Harry Caray
- An early hot dog vending bucket, ca. 1910
- The costume of the San Diego Chicken team mascot
- Sammy Sosa's 62nd home-run ball from 1998
- Baseball pitched by Cy Young in the first World Series in 1903
- Rare photographs and possessions from baseball greats Jackie Robinson, Joe DiMaggio and other heroes
- "Wonderboy," the bat used by Robert Redford in the 1984 baseball film The Natural
- A piece of the "Green Monster" left-field wall from Boston's historic Fenway Park

Baseball As America, the most significant exhibition of baseball artifacts and history ever assembled, was organized by the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in Cooperstown, New York. The national tour of Baseball As America is sponsored by Ernst & Young, LLP.

The exhibit is supported locally by the Cuyahoga County Commissioners, Cleveland Indians and Cleveland Clinic at the Great Lakes Science Center.

The Great Lakes Science Center is one of the nation's leading science and technology centers, featuring more than 400 hands-on exhibits, themed traveling exhibits, daily demonstrations and the awe-inspiring OMNIMAX Theater. The Science Center is open daily 9:30AM to 5:30PM, with discounted parking for guests in the attached 500-car garage. For more information, contact the Science Center at (216) 694-2000 or visit www.GreatScience.com.

###